

The rights of private citizens to the privacy within their own home is paramount and supercedes any organaization rights or government organizations predilections.

The no call list shall not be diluted or overuled to any degree. And if it is, I will make every call I get a federal case keeping at least three people in the FCC constantly responding to me with the intention of overwhelming the FCC staff so as to make your incompetance and irrelevance more widely know.